

Columbiana County, Ohio – Education Resources

K-12 & Support Services

1. Columbiana County Educational Service Center (CCESC)

- Provides services to school districts including curriculum, intervention, and special programs
- ESC Work Solutions: vocational transition services for students with disabilities
 - Opportunity Center: alternative learning pathways
 - Website: <https://www.ccesc.k12.oh.us>

2. Columbiana County Career & Technical Center (CCCTC)

- Career and technical training for high school students and adults
- Programs include health sciences, welding, IT, cosmetology, veterinary science, and more
- Adult Education division offers workforce training, skill building, and credential programs
 - Website: <https://www.ccctc.k12.oh.us>

3. ASPIRE – Columbiana County (Adult Education / Literacy)

- Free program offering adult education, GED preparation, literacy, and English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL)
 - Website: <https://www.jcesc.k12.oh.us/Aspire-ColumbianaCounty.aspx>

4. OhioGuidestone – Columbiana County

- Provides job training, workforce development, and community training programs
 - Website: <https://ohioguidestone.org/locations/northeast-ohio/columbiana>

5. Community Action Agency (CAA) of Columbiana County – Head Start / Early Childhood Development

- Provides early childhood education and preschool programs including Head Start and Early Head Start
 - Website: <https://caaofcc.org/headstart/community-resources>

Local School Districts & Private Schools

1. Columbiana Exempted Village School District

- Public elementary, middle, and high schools serving Columbiana residents

2. Heartland Christian School

- Private Christian school serving Pre-K through 12th grade students in Columbiana

3. East Palestine City School District

- Public school district serving East Palestine and surrounding areas of Columbiana County